Nellie M. Gorbea
Secretary of State

This guide was produced by the Rhode Island Department of State

Dear Potential Candidate:

I applaud your interest in serving the public as an elected official. As your Secretary of State, I am working hard to improve access to the ballot box while ensuring the integrity of every vote. This digital guide contains all of the information you will need to run for office in the state's September primary and November's general election including:

- Filing deadlines;
- Campaign finance regulations, as governed by the state Board of Elections;
- Contact information for your local elections officials.

We are happy to provide a hard copy of the guide upon request. If you need additional information, please contact our Elections Division at 401-222-2340, TTY 711 or elections@sos.ri.gov.

Government can and must be effective, transparent and accountable to the people it serves in order to succeed. That can only happen when we all participate. I look forward to seeing you at the polls in 2022.

Sincerely,

Nellie M. Gorbea
Secretary of State

* Not on the 2022 ballot.

 Candidates for U.S. Representative must live in Rhode Island, not necessarily the district in which they are running.

Party Eligibility

Affiliated candidates:

If you plan on running as a party candidate, you must be a member of that particular party (Democrat or Republican) or unaffiliated at the time of filing your Declaration of Candidacy.

Independent/unaffiliated candidates:

You are eligible to file a Declaration of Candidacy as an independent (also known as unaffiliated) candidate if, at the time of filing the Declaration of Candidacy, you are qualified to vote in the election within the district for the office which you seek.

The following chart may help you understand your options:

If you are registered as a:	You are eligible to run as a:
	Democrat	Republican	Independent
Democrat	Yes	No*	Yes
Republican	No*	Yes	Yes
Independent	Yes	Yes	Yes

! * If you belong to one party and want to run as a candidate for another party, you must change your party at least 90 days prior to the date you will file your Declaration of Candidacy. You must file a disaffiliation no later than March 31st.

Deadline to file a disaffiliation is March 31st.

Disaffiliation

What is disaffiliation?

When you no longer wish to be a member of a particular political party, you must sign a form to “disaffiliate” from that party. Forms are available at the local boards of canvassers. You can also disaffiliate at vote.ri.gov.

Do I have to disaffiliate?

If you want to run as a candidate for a party other than the one to which you are registered, the following chart may help you understand your filing options:

If you are registered as a:	Are you required to disaffiliate if you wish to run as a:
	Democrat	Republican	Independent
Democrat	No	Yes	No
Republican	Yes	No	No
Independent	No*	No*	No

* By declaring to be a candidate in a primary you will then become a member of that party.

You must disaffiliate at least 90 days before you file your Declaration of Candidacy.

When is the deadline to disaffiliate?

If you file your Declaration of Candidacy on:	You must file your disaffiliation, if necessary, no later than:
June 27 th June 28 th June 29 th	March 29 th March 30 th March 31 st

Where can I disaffiliate?

You can disaffiliate at vote.ri.gov or you can file your disaffiliation by completing a new voter registration form. Keep in mind that a mailed registration form must be received (not postmarked) by the above deadlines.

If mailing or dropping off your form, it must be filed with the local board of canvassers in the city or town where you are registered to vote.

Your Declaration of Candidacy must be filed on June 27th, 28th or 29th.

Filing a Declaration of Candidacy

Declaration of Candidacy:

The Declaration of Candidacy is the document you sign to start the process of becoming a candidate. You “declare” yourself as a candidate for a particular office and if you wish to run as a party candidate, you also “declare” yourself to be a member of that party.

Do I need to file a Declaration of Candidacy to run for office?

Yes. All candidates for all public and party offices must file a Declaration of Candidacy.

Where do I get a Declaration of Candidacy form?

The Declaration of Candidacy form is available on our website at vote.ri.gov.

The Declaration of Candidacy form is also available at:

- › Local Board of Canvassers in each city and town. See addresses on page 21.
- › Department of State’s Elections Division. See address on page 22.
- › The end of this guide.

How do I file my Declaration of Candidacy form?

Complete the form online and print it out. You must then sign it and deliver or mail the form.

Declarations of Candidacy must contain original signatures. Your completed form cannot be faxed or emailed.

Where do I file my Declaration of Candidacy form?

Candidates for:	File your Declaration of Candidacy at:
Federal Public Office: Representative in Congress Statewide Public Office: Governor, Lt. Governor, Secretary of State, General Treasurer, Attorney General	Department of State’s Elections Division, 148 W. River Street, Providence, RI.
State Public Office: Senator in General Assembly, Representative in General Assembly	Local Board of Canvassers in the city or town where you are registered to vote.
Local Public Office* : Mayor/Town Administrator City/Town Council School Committee	Local Board of Canvassers in the city or town where you are registered to vote.
State Party Committee Office: Senatorial District Committee Representative District Committee Democratic State Committee	Local Board of Canvassers in the city or town where you are registered to vote.
Local Party Committee Office: City/Town/Ward Committee	Local Board of Canvassers in the city or town where you are registered to vote.

* Contact your local Board of Canvassers for a full listing of local public offices in your city/town.

Can I file a Declaration of Candidacy form for more than one office?

You cannot file a Declaration of Candidacy for more than one public state or local office in a primary or election.

However, if you file for a state or local public office, you can still file for state or local party offices. Party offices are offices elected in a primary. You must file a separate Declaration of Candidacy for every office you seek.

Example: You may file a Declaration of Candidacy as a Democrat for representative in General Assembly and another Declaration of Candidacy as a Democrat for Democratic representative district committee.

You can file a Declaration of Candidacy for more than one state or local party office.

Example: You can file a Declaration of Candidacy for Democratic senatorial district committee and file a Declaration of Candidacy for Democrat town committee.

Additionally, you may NOT file for the same office under different party labels.

Example: You may NOT file a Declaration of Candidacy for senator in General Assembly as a Democrat and file a Declaration of Candidacy for senator in General Assembly as an independent/unaffiliated candidate.

If a voter files a Declaration of Candidacy for more than one state or local public office during the declaration period, the last declaration filed shall negate any previous filings.

If I am an independent/unaffiliated voter, and file a Declaration of Candidacy as a party candidate, does that automatically make me a member of that party?

Yes.

Example: If you are an independent/unaffiliated voter and file a Declaration of Candidacy as a Democrat, you are automatically recorded as a member of the Democrat Party. Filing a Declaration of Candidacy is sufficient to bind you to that party even if you do not circulate nomination papers or you do not vote in the primary.

Endorsements

What is an endorsement?

This is the process whereby party officials designate a person to be the candidate representing their party in a primary, and if no primary, in the general election.

Who makes the endorsements and where are they filed?

It depends on the office for which you are running. The following chart should help:

For the office of:	Endorsement by:	Endorsements are filed at:	Required signatures	Deadline to be filed
Representative in Congress	State Committee	Department of State's Elections Division	See RIGL 17-12-4	Not later than July 1 st

 For Providence only: Endorsements of candidates for senator in General Assembly, representative in General Assembly, senatorial or representative district committee, and Democratic State Committee in the City of Providence must be filed at the Department of State's Elections Division, 148 W. River Street, Providence, RI.

What happens if I am the endorsed candidate for a public office?

If you are the endorsed candidate for a public office such as senator in General Assembly or town council, you will be issued nomination papers and you must submit the required number of valid signatures in order to qualify to be on the ballot.

What happens if I am the endorsed candidate for a party office?

If you are the endorsed candidate for a party office such as representative district committee or town committee, you do not need to gather signatures. The filing of the endorsement by the particular committee is sufficient to nominate you to the party office.

What happens if I am unendorsed as a party candidate for public office?

If you are an unendorsed candidate for a public office such as senator in General Assembly or town council, you will be issued nomination papers and you must submit the required number of valid signatures in order to qualify to be on the ballot.

What happens if I am unendorsed as a party candidate for a party committee office?

If you are an unendorsed candidate for a party office such as representative district committee or town committee, you will be issued nomination papers and you must submit the required number of valid signatures in order to qualify to be on the ballot.

Candidates for:	Endorsed:	Not endorsed:
Federal Public Office: Representative in Congress Statewide Public Office: Governor, Lt. Governor, Secretary of State, General Treasurer, Attorney General	Candidates need nomination papers	Candidates need nomination papers
State Public Office: Senator in General Assembly, Representative in General Assembly	Candidates need nomination papers	Candidates need nomination papers
Local Public Office: Mayor/Town Administrator City/Town Council School Committee	Candidates need nomination papers	Candidates need nomination papers
State Party Committee Office: Senatorial District Committee Representative District Committee Democratic State Committee	Candidates do not need nomination papers	Candidates need nomination papers
Local Party Committee Office: City/Town/Ward Committee	Candidates do not need nomination papers	Candidates need nomination papers

Anyone other than candidates picking up nomination papers from the Department of State's Elections Division must have written authorization from the candidate.

Nomination Papers

What are nomination papers?

Nomination papers are the forms on which you will obtain valid signatures, that is, signatures of registered voters who are eligible to vote for the office that you are seeking. In order to be on the ballot, you will need to obtain a specified number of valid signatures on your nomination papers.

Who needs nomination papers?

All candidates for federal, state and local public office need nomination papers.

The only candidates who do NOT need nomination papers are ENDORSED candidates for party offices (i.e. state, district, city, town or ward committees). However, UNENDORSED candidates for state, district, city, town or ward committees MUST gather signatures on nomination papers.

How many signatures are required on nomination papers in order to qualify?

If you are running for:	Number of valid signatures required:
Representative in Congress	500
Governor	1,000
Lt. Governor	500
Secretary of State	500
General Treasurer	500
Attorney General	500
Senator in General Assembly	100
Representative in General Assembly	50
Senate and Representative District Committees (Unendorsed only)	50
Democratic State Committee (Unendorsed only)	50
Local Offices	Check with your local Board of Canvassers.

When and where do I pick up my nomination papers?

You may pick up your nomination papers starting on July 6th.

Representative in Congress, Governor, Lt. Governor, Secretary of State, General Treasurer, Attorney General: You must obtain your nomination papers from the Department of State's Elections Division, 148 W. River Street, Providence, RI.

All other offices (senator in General Assembly, representative in General Assembly, party offices and local offices):

You must obtain your nomination papers from the local Board of Canvassers where you filed your Declaration of Candidacy, except for Providence.

For Providence Candidates Only: If you are a candidate for senator in General Assembly, representative in General Assembly, senatorial or representative district committee, or Democratic State Committee in the City of Providence, you must obtain your nomination papers from the Department of State's Elections Division, 148 W. River Street, Providence, RI.

Signers on a nomination paper must be from the city or town listed at the top of the nomination paper.

Who can sign my nomination papers?

ANY registered voter who is eligible to vote for the office for which you seek election.

Example: A voter who is registered in the First Congressional District can sign your nomination papers if you are running for the office of Representative in Congress in District 1, but that voter cannot sign your nomination papers if you are running for the office of Representative in Congress in District 2.

Does the signer have to be a member of the same political party listed on the nomination paper?

The voter DOES NOT need to be a member of the same political party listed on the nomination paper.

Example: A registered Democrat can sign the nomination papers of a Democratic candidate, Republican candidate, or an independent/unaffiliated candidate as long as the voter lives in the district in which the candidate is running.

Does it make a difference which of my papers a voter signs?

Yes. At the top of each nomination paper there is a space for you to indicate the city/town in which the signers are registered voters.

Example: A registered voter in Providence must sign a nomination paper that lists “Providence” at the top of the paper. This is the paper that you will return to the Providence Board of Canvassers. The Providence Board of Canvassers will certify signatures on this paper. If a Cranston voter signs a Providence nomination paper, that signature will not be certified since the nomination paper will be reviewed only by the Providence Board of Canvassers.

If a voter signs a nomination paper of a party candidate, does that automatically make the voter a member of that party?

No. The act of signing nomination papers does not make the voter a member of that political party.

How many papers can a person sign?

There is no restriction on the number of nomination papers a person can sign for federal and state candidates. However, your signature can only be counted once for each candidate.

When and where do I return my nomination papers?

Nomination papers for:	Must be returned by:	Must be returned to:
All candidates	July 15 th at 4 p.m.	Local Board of Canvassers in the city or town listed at the top of the nomination paper

How do I know if I qualified for ballot placement?

Candidates for federal, state and local office can check our website at vote.ri.gov. As certified nomination papers are received from the local boards of canvassers, we will enter the number of valid signatures for each candidate into our database. This information will be updated at the end of each day during the nomination paper certification process (July 6th through July 21st) with the final posting available on July 22nd. Remember, nomination papers for all candidates are due to the local board of canvassers by 4 p.m. on July 15th.

Qualifying as a candidate in Rhode Island

How to safely collect signatures

Do not collect signatures if you are feeling sick or were exposed to someone with COVID-19 within the last 5 days.

Covering your nose and mouth with a protective mask helps reduce transmission of COVID-19.

Comply with social distancing guidelines.

Wipe your clipboard and pen between each use. Have hand sanitizer on hand for those signing your nomination papers to use before and after signing.*

Frequently wash your hands or use hand sanitizer while you collect signatures. Avoid touching your face.

Be sure wipes and hand sanitizer have at least 60% alcohol content to kill the spread of germs.*

Withdrawal of Candidacy

If I file a Declaration of Candidacy, can I decide not to run?

Yes, but you must file a withdrawal of candidacy.

When and where do I file a withdrawal of candidacy?

If you filed as a:	File a withdrawal by:	File a withdrawal with:
Party or independent/unaffiliated candidate for local office	Not later than July 18 th	Local Board of Canvassers where you filed your Declaration of Candidacy
Party or independent/unaffiliated candidate for federal or state office	Not later than July 22 nd	Department of State's Elections Division

Can I withdraw if I am the party's nominee for the office that I am seeking?

Yes. If you are the party's nominee for the office that you are seeking (i.e. you are the candidate that will appear on the November ballot for your party) you can withdraw.

Keep in mind that you have to withdraw by September 16th in order for the party to name another candidate to fill the vacancy.

Ballot Placement - Primary

Will there be a primary for the office that I am seeking?

A primary is necessary when two or more individuals from the same political party qualify for ballot placement for the same office.

There will be no primary for the office you seek if: (1) no one else filed a valid Declaration of Candidacy as a party candidate from the same party for the same office that you are seeking; (2) no one else filed timely nomination papers containing the requisite number of signatures for the same office that you are seeking under the same political party; or (3) the other candidate(s) who qualified for the same office under the same political party withdrew according to state law.

In primaries where the voter casts a vote for more than one candidate for an office, there is no primary when the number of candidates qualified for ballot placement equals or is less than the number to be elected.

Example: In a town council race where the voters are allowed to vote for any five candidates, there is no primary when the number of candidates from the same political party qualified for ballot placement is five or less.

If I run as a candidate for public office, when does my name appear on the primary ballot?

Names of federal, state and local candidates for public office where there is a primary appear on the September 13th primary ballot.

Please note that the names of unopposed party candidates for federal and state office also appear on the primary ballot. However, when there is no primary opposition for the office you are seeking, you are automatically the nominee of your party for said public office and your name will also appear on the November ballot.

Names of unopposed party candidates for local office do not appear on the primary ballot.

If I run as a candidate for a party office, when does my name appear on the ballot?

Party offices are elected in the primary being held for the party. For example, senatorial and representative district committees will be elected on September 13th.

In elections for party offices where the voter casts a vote for more than one candidate for an office (i.e. vote for any five members of a senatorial district committee), there is no election when the number of candidates qualified for ballot placement equals or is less than the number to be elected. In this case, party office candidates are automatically elected to the positions and their names do not appear on the ballot.

How will my name appear on the primary ballot?

Your name will be printed on the ballot as it appears on the voting list.

How is my ballot placement determined if I am a candidate in a primary?

The endorsed candidate for each federal, state and local office will appear first directly under the title of office that is being sought and will have an asterisk (*) next to their name. For local offices where there is more than one endorsed candidate, the names of the endorsed candidates shall be listed in the order in which they were certified to the Department of State's Elections Division by the local Board of Canvassers.

The unendorsed candidate or candidates for federal and state offices will follow on the ballot. If there is more than one unendorsed candidate, they will be listed on the ballot in the order chosen by a lottery conducted by the Department of State.

The unendorsed candidate or candidates for local offices will be listed in alphabetical order following the name or names of the endorsed candidate or candidates.

When are the lotteries conducted for ballot placement for the primary?

The Department of State will conduct a lottery on July 22nd at 5 p.m., in the State Library, State House, to determine ballot placement for unendorsed federal and state party candidates for primary ballots.

Ballot Placement - General Election

How will my name appear on the general election ballot?

Your name will be printed on the ballot as it appears on the voting list. Party candidates will be listed on the ballot along with the name of their political party. Independent/unaffiliated candidates will be listed on the ballot along with the name of their “political principle, movement or organization” in small print or the word “Independent” when no “political principle, movement or organization” is listed on the candidate’s Declaration of Candidacy.

How is my ballot placement determined if I am a candidate in the general election?

The order in which the political parties appear on the general election ballot is determined by a lottery conducted by the Department of State. The order in which federal and state independent/unaffiliated candidates appear on the ballot beneath the party candidates is also determined by a lottery conducted by the Department of State. For local public offices the city/town selects the method of ballot placement.

When are the lotteries conducted for ballot placement for the general election?

The Department of State will conduct a lottery on July 22nd at 5 p.m. in the State Library, State House, to determine ballot placement of party candidates and federal and state independent/unaffiliated candidates for the general election ballots.

Election Day Activities

Are there any restrictions on activities at the polling places on Election Day?

Rhode Island General Laws, Section 17-19-49 currently prohibits the display or distribution of any poster, paper, circular or document that would aid, injure or defeat any candidate for public office or any political party or any question on the ballot.

This law prohibits such display within the voting place or within fifty (50) feet of the entrance or entrances to the building in which voting is taking place at any primary or election.

Election officials, that is, wardens, moderators, clerks and bi-partisan supervisors, assigned to a polling place are also prohibited from displaying or wearing any political party button, badge or other device that is intended to aid, injure or defeat the candidacy of any person for public office or any question on the ballot or to intimidate or influence any voter.

The State Board of Elections has oversight over the conduct of elections at polling places and that office should be contacted if you have specific questions as to what campaigning is allowed. Their contact information can be found on page 22.

Campaign Finance

For state and local candidates, Title 17, Chapter 25 of the Rhode Island General Laws entitled “Rhode Island Campaign Contributions and Expenditures Reporting” governs campaign finance.

The Campaign Finance Division of the State Board of Elections administers this chapter of the Rhode Island General Laws. The State Board of Elections also promulgates rules and regulations regarding campaign finance.

The Campaign Finance Division provides information relative to campaign finance reporting requirements as well as information on contribution and expenditure limits and restrictions relative to financing a campaign.

The Campaign Finance Division will also provide information regarding public financing of election campaigns of candidates for statewide general offices.

Ethics Commission Filing

All candidates for state or municipal elected office are REQUIRED to file a financial disclosure statement with the Rhode Island Ethics Commission, covering the prior calendar year. See R.I.G.L. § 36-14-16(c). This disclosure must be filed within thirty (30) days of filing a Notice of Organization (CF-1) or a Declaration of Candidacy, whichever occurs first. You may request an extension of time to file of no more than fifteen (15) days past the deadline, provided that you make the request to the Ethics Commission prior to the original filing deadline.

The Ethics Commission's financial disclosure form for candidates is different than, and in addition to, any campaign or candidate-related filings you may be required to make with the State Board of Elections, the Department of State, or your local Board of Canvassers.

Failure to file this form on time with the Ethics Commission is a violation of the law, and will lead to the imposition of a substantial fine.

The financial disclosure form requires the disclosure of, among other things, sources of income and assets, including those of a spouse and any dependent children. You generally do NOT have to disclose the amount of income you received or the value of your assets, although candidates for statewide general office do disclose ranges of income amounts. Candidates must also disclose business interests including those in entities that are regulated by, or do business with, the State of Rhode Island. Additionally, candidates must disclose the name and address of any person, business or organization (other than a credit card company or the holder of your residential mortgage) which is owed more than $1,000 by the candidate, a spouse or dependent child.

How to File

Online: Forms may be completed and submitted online at <https://ethics.ri.gov/>. The Ethics Commission strongly recommends online filing because it is simpler and faster than submitting a hard copy, and they will automatically email you a receipt and copy of your completed online form. To file online the first time you must contact the Ethics Commission (401-222-3790) to obtain a PIN# and I.D.

Hard Copy: If you do not wish to file online, you may obtain a hard copy of the financial disclosure form and file it via regular mail or hand delivery to the Ethics Commission office. To obtain a copy of the form contact the Ethics Commission.
